

REPORT ON

International Women's Day

On March 28th February, [COLLEGE OF NURSING, KANPUR] joyfully celebrated International Women's Day with a series of engaging events that highlighted the achievements, strength, and resilience of women.

The program was started at 2 pm in WAC Hall. The program was held in presence of principal Dr Naveena JH, college of nursing, Kanpur and other faculty members.

The campus buzzed with excitement as students prepared for the role play competition. Total 2 groups had performed for the role play competition. Participants were tasked with portraying influential women from history and contemporary society, ranging from political leaders and scientists to artists and activists. The event was a visual and educational delight, as students donned costumes and performed skits that brought these iconic figures to life.

Following the role play competition, speech competition was also held in which 9 students had participated and the time limit was 2 minutes. Students took active participation in programme.
