

REPORT ON

WORLD HEALTH DAY 2025

To commemorate World Health Day 2025, the COLLEGE OF NURSING, KANPUR organized a vibrant program on 7th April 2025, in alignment with the WHO theme “Healthy Beginning, Hopeful Future,” with a special focus on global action for maternal and child health as a foundation for a sustainable and healthy future.

The programme was started at 2pm. In GFATM Hall. The programme was held in presence of principal Dr Naveena JH, College of nursing, Kanpur and other faculty members.

The program commenced with a welcome address by Chief guest Dr. Rajtilak MD,FIAP Dept of pediatrics. He expressed his appreciation for the students’ involvement and emphasized the responsibility of healthcare professionals in promoting maternal and child well-being.

Guest of honor Prof .Dr. sangeeta arya Head of the department of OBS & GYNAE, DBSK IMS Kanpur, unfolded the theme of the day, explaining its global relevance and the role of community health nurses in shaping a healthier beginning for every child and mother.

Special guest Mrs. meera devi matron of OBS &GYNAE Department of LLR HOSPITAL,KANPUR. Talk and focused on nursing interventions that can bring transforming change in maternal & child health outcomes.

AS part of the celebration, students – centered competition were held to enhance engagement & learning :-

POSTER COMPETITION – Poster competition conducted by students, focusing on maternal & child health promotion, nutrition, antenatal care, immunization, & safe childbirth practices. the poster competition was held in 12 students had participated and the time limit was 2 hour. Students took active participate in programme.

The best three poster were selected by Mr. Suresh Singh, Associate Professor, Mrs. Pushpa Yadav, nursing tutor, based on creatitivity & presentative skills . Winners received certificate. The overall programme was organised by prof.dr.naveena JH Organizing chairperson & mrs.soniya sankhla organizing secretary.

Winners of the poster competitions are:

1st Diksha sharma (B.Sc.nursing 5th sem.)

2nd Diksha Yadav (B.Sc.nursing 5th sem.)

3rd Rizwan (B.Sc.nursing 5th sem.)

The celebration ended with a concluding remarks by Mr. prof.dr.NAVEENA JH , principal, college of nursing, he expressed gratitude to the guest speakers, faculty members, organizing team, all the enthusiastic student participant who contributed to the programme"s. the event proved to be an inspiring platform for promoting awareness, advocacy & action toward achieving a healthier beginning & a hopeful future for all mother & children.

Signature of principal